Super Sentences! We're Going on a Bear Hunt (Tuesday)

These simple sentences are dull! The author forgot to describe the settings. Read the text through and describe the places the children visit. Use the pictures to help. We want super sentences!

First, the children came to a hill. It was a very steep hill. It had long grass and golden meadows. It was a bright day.	steep hill bright day golden meadows
Next, they crossed the river.	deep river crystal clear water freezing cold
Later that day, they found a beach.	bleak morning thundery clouds sticky mud empty beach
Then, they walked through the woods.	dark woods eerie shadows frosty hill crunchy snow,
The next morning, they found another hill.	bleak winter's day dark and damp cave silent and still
Finally, they arrived at a cave.	rocky and dark
