Dear Parents / Carers;

Hallowe'en Celebrations at TVI

Being a good British citizen to us is about emersing ourselves in common traditions and customs, as well as recognising key faith-based celebrations.

This year hallowe'en falls during the Half Term break and so we have a very special piece of family homework for ALL of our children – from Nursery all the way up to Year 2.

This Half Term we are running a Pumpkin Lantern Competition and we would like all of the children to make a pumpkin lantern / jack-o-lantern at home with their grown-ups. Then, when you've finished, take a photograph of your creation and upload it to Twitter remembering to tag us in! We are @TVInfants and @ClaireTVI. You can tag your child's class teach in as well if you like.

We are running a competition for the most creative, spectacular and original pieces of work and we'll be handing out special prizes to the winners after the half term break!
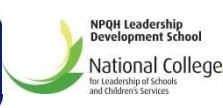

Just a few reminders:

- Please make sure that the twitter account used is your own. Children are not allowed to have Twitter accounts until they are at least 13 years old.
- Please don't mention your child's name in the tweet. Photos are allowed and your child's class name is fine.
- Don't forget to tag us in - We won't be able to see your Tweet if you don't tag us in!
- And finally…please use the hastag #TVIHalloween.

Happy Hallowe'en from us all here @TVI. We can't wait to see all of your creations!

Yours sincerely,

Paul Jordan,
Headteacher
