Dear Parents / Carers;

St Georges Day Celebrations

This Friday we will be celebrating St Georges Day at Thames View Infants, learning the story of St George and the day he saved a princess and slayed a fearsome, fire-breathing dragon!

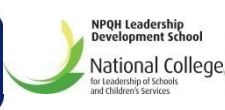

Friday will be a non-uniform day and it would be lovely if the children could dress up as one of the characters from the story of St George. Children can come to school dressed as Kings, Knights, Dragons or Princesses on Friday if they would like to. Or, if that's not their style, they could simply wear their own clothes with a Red and White theme.

I will be holding a special St Georges themed school assembly and (as well as the usual selection of food) the children will be offered a traditional British lunch of Fish and Chips.

We're going to have lots of fun on Friday celebrating this important day in our calendar.

Yours sincerely,

Paul Jordan,
Headteacher
