Dear Parents and Carers;

The Young Artists' Summer Show – Royal Academy

We are pleased to let you know about a lovely creative opportunity that you might be interested in doing with your child over the upcoming Half Term break.

Our school will be registering with the Royal Academy's Young Artists' Summer Show, a national art exhibition celebrating artwork created by children and young people. As part of this, families are invited to submit their child's artworks online if they would like to take part.

This is not compulsory — simply an optional activity that you might enjoy doing together at home, perhaps at the weekend or over the holidays.

If you would like to participate, all submissions can be made directly by parents or carers through the Royal Academy website.

We have signed up as a school so when you are submitting you can select Thames View Infants. Each child can submit one artwork and there is no theme. When you enter your child's work, you will be asked for an image of your artwork plus some information about the piece such as title, size and a little text about the artwork. Your child's artwork will be seen by a panel of judges and the selected pieces will be shown in an online exhibition. Some of the artworks will even be shown at the Royal Academy of Arts.

You can find full details about how to submit artwork, key dates, and entry guidelines on the website. Please click on the link below for more information:

Graded Outstanding Again!

We hope some of you might enjoy exploring this creative opportunity with your children. It's a wonderful chance to celebrate their imagination and artistic talents.

We would of course love to see any creations that you do submit for your child – so remember to take a picture and upload it to BlueSky tagging us in!

Yours sincerely,
